Mr. Beck, of Kentucky, in the House to-day asked to be excused from service on the special committee appointed yesterday to investigate charges of bribery in connection with the credit mobiler. He assigns as a reason that he has very decidedly expressed his opinion with re-gard to certain men charged. On the stump in Kentucky, at the time the charges were made, he told his constituents that it would require than he had yet seen or heard to convince him of the guilt of certain men. The request of Mr. Beck was acceeded to, and Speaker Blaine requested Mr. Cox, speaker pro tem, when the c mmittee was appointed, to name another gentleman in place of Mr. Beck. THE SUPREME COURT VACANCY .- Associate Justice Nelson, of the U.S. Supreme Court, has tendered his resignation to the President, and will be placed on the retired list, being over seventy years of age, and having been on the Supreme Court bench for twenty-seven years. The law provides that a judge may be retired, if he desires, upon reaching the age of seventy years, and after serving ten years. The next judge in order of retirement is Judge Clifford, who has been on the bench more than ten years, and is now about sixty-eight years of age. The wills of Mr. and Mrs. Greeley are now in the possession of the surrogate of West Chester county. They leave all their property, real and personal, to their two daughters.

BALTIMORE AND POTONAC RAILROAD .- We are glad to learn that work on this road, south of Marlboro', is being pushed forward at the present time with censiderable energy, and it is romored that the authorities of the road intend to commence running at least one train of cars for passengers daily between Pope's creek and Baltimore, about the 10th of December. At the creek the turn-table and sidings are nearly completed. On the upper portion of the road, this side of Marlboro, we learn the work of getting the road in running order is progressing very finely. Should the weather be at all favorable, we may confidently expect from the

THE COAL TRADE.-The last auction sale at New York of Scranton coal did not include any lump coal, the company having none to offer at public sale. The sale, in consequence, was reduced to 75,000 tons, at an average decline of two cents per ton on the five sizes sold. The condition of the market, as inferred from prices and demand, is pretty well supplied. The trade of next year is already awakening attention. The miners are calculating upon higher wages, and the operators say such a thing is impracticable at the most favorably located mines and quite impossible at all others. A good many

MR. GREELEY'S MIND APPROTED BEFORE THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION .- The New York World says: It is probable that Mr. Greeiey's mind had been seriously affected before the presidential election took place. After that time, and before his fatal illness, it is understood that he was examined by Dr. Brown, of the Bloomingdale asylum, and other medical experts, and that the opinion given was that even had it been possible for him to have suvived the sickness which has resulted in his death, he would have remained a victim of melancholia, one of the most incurable forms of

New York, Dec. 3, noon.—The city hall park has been jummed with thousands of people endeavoring to obtain a last look at the remains endeavoring to obtain a last look at the remains of Horace Greeley as they lay in state in the governor's room in the city hail. The whole space of the park is literally jammed, and although the crowd tiles by the coffin at nearly a hundred a minute, there is no apparent diminution, the mass extending from Broadway and Chatham row. The flags on all the buildings throughout the city and on all the shipping in the harbor are at half-mast, and great crowds from every railway train and steamboat add to the crush to view the remains of the great adj. the crush to view the remains of the great edi-

> From Europe To-day. FRANCE MORE TRANQUIL.

PARIS, Dec. 3 .- The determination Sunday of Thiers and his cabinet to remain in the govern ment has served to dispel the grave feeling of uncertainty which followed the action of the Assembly on Saturday last. Dispatches from all parts of France represent the country as calm. All parties are awaiting the organization of the committee of thirty appointed by the Assembly to draw up a law regulating the pubtic powers and prescribing conditions of ministerial responsibility as provided for in the resotution of Dufaure, a lopted on Friday last. The committee will meet Thursday. Picard is mentioned for minister of the interior, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lefranc.

The Republique Française newspaper says that in event of defeat on the organization of the committee under Dufaure's motion on Thursday, it is possible that Thiers and his supporters on the left will withdraw from the Assem-Libel Suit Against the Philadelphia

TERRIBLE FRIGHT OF A MINER.-A leading miner of this vicinity, a few days ago, paid his mine a vis.t, and stepped into the bucket and was let down. During the descent the rope broke and let the bucket loose. Its occupant seized the upper end of the rope and hang suspended. The engineer, unaware of his predic-ament, lowered the rope until he supposed his employer had reached the bottom of the shaft is being 250 feet deep-and then stopped. Meanwhile the victim clong to the rope and shouted wildly for help, but home was near. At length, when exhausted, he indulged in a silent prayer, in the expectation of being dashed to pieces by the fall about to take place, and, closing his eyes, let go, and feli-about eighteen inches. DIDN'T KNOW HER OWN MIND .- MISS Marin luntingdon, a Georgia guri of seventeen, who is stopping at the Broadway hotel in New York, was engaged to be married to a Fourth avenue clothier named Conklin. A few days ago she quarreled with him, and immediately went to an Episcopal minister and got married to another gentleman named Walker. By the time husband and wife reached home she changed her mind again, and kissed him once and told him never to see her more. Then she applied for a divorce, and is to be married to Conklin as soon as she is free. It is not an easy matter to determine whice of the three is the bigger
